Fiction Workshop Response Form

Story Title:

Your Name:

400-word minimum (total words in the document, including questions, must add up to at least 541)

1. Read the first two pages of your peer's story. What do you think the story is going to be about? Explain why.

2. Read the middle of the story and track each new development via a bullet-point list. Note the moments in which you were delighted in some way and explain why. Note the moments in which you were confused and explain why.

3. Read the story's ending (last page or last two pages). Did the ending respond in some way to the story's beginning? Explain.

4. Cut and paste your peers' questions here and respond to them. (*Peers can submit up to three questions. These should appear at the top of their story's first page.)