Randon Billings Noble is an essayist. She is the author of the collection Be with Me Always and the editor of the lyric essay anthology A Harp in the Stars. She is the founding editor of the literary magazine After the Art and teaches in the MFA programs at Goucher and West Virginia Wesleyan.

Timothy J. Hillegonds is the author of the memoir, The Distance Between (Nebraska, 2019). He has published work in The Guardian, The Daily Beast, Salon, Brevity, and other publications. He serves as a contributing editor for Slag Glass City, a digital journal of the urban essay arts.

Matthew Krajniak earned his PhD from the University of Houston. He was hired as the Executive Editor of Consequence Forum in 2020, and has helped grow the staff from six to fifty people, the readership to nearly 5K unique online visitors a month, and the programming to include workshops and panels.

Donald Quist is the author of two essay collections and one fiction collection and co-editor of an academic anthology. He is the creator of the online nonfiction series PAST TEN and teaches for the MFA in Writing at Alma College. Donald is an Assistant Professor of Creative Writing at the University of Missouri.

Parisa Saranj is a writer and Persian translator. Her writings and translations have been published in several publications, including Ms. Magazine, Defunct Magazine, and Two Lines. She is the translator of Empty and Me (Lee & Low, 2023) and Women, Life, Freedom (Cornell University Press, 2023) and two documentaries, Nasrin (2020) and Sansur (2023).