Poets Against Walls: An Anthology/Handbook for Writing Past the Checkpoints

- The moderator will talk briefly about Poets Against Walls' history, their work with marginalized communities and activists, and their efforts to document and preserve creative writing by BIPOC and LGBTQ+ writers in the Borderlands of Texas and beyond it.
- They will then introduce each panelist with a short bio and allow the panelist to read and discuss their work and the forthcoming anthology for 15-20 minutes each.
- Panelist 1 Carolina Monsivais
- Panelist 2 Emmy Pérez
- Panelist 3 César L. De León
- Panelist 4 Celina A. Gomez (recorded previously or remote)
- After the reading, there will be a Q&A portion to continue the conversation.
